THE RIGHT TO BE TRIED BY JURY SELECTED WITHOUT COLOR LINES.

Washington, Dec. 80 —The half of the Supreme Court of the United S at or was the exeme of a rare and unusu al speciasic one day last wick. Two colored lawyers, Cornelius A Jones of Mississippi and Emanuel M. Howlett of this city, made arguments in cores involving the constitutional right of thecitisens of Mississ ppi to be tried by We wish our many readers a jury selected without reguard to the men in other respects qualified to ser ve a jurors. The case before the court Mr. Kirk of the Chickasaw were docksted under the title of John and Charles Smith vs State of Misslasippi. In 1891 John Gibson, a golored man, killed a white man in Wesh lagion County Miss.
